Biographical information

Mose Joseph Vosse was born on December 22, 1878, the son of Michael J. (born circa 1845), who had emigrated from Prussia, and Mena Vosse. Mose was a dry goods salesman in 1910, then became proprietor of the American Theatre, and later returned to sales for several companies. He married Beulah Rosenbush, the daughter of Meier (1853-1917) and Lizzie Maas Rosenbusch. Beulah was born in Indiana on September 21, 1884, and had four siblings: Corrine Marianne (married Leo Gronauer) (1880-1958), Isador “Isa” Jack (1880-1918), Florence, and Mervin Maas (1889-1969). Mose and Beulah had three children: Fred Michel, Mose J., and Henry M. Mose Vosse, Sr., died on August 2, 1955. An active member of Temple Israel Congregation, Beulah was principal of the Temple Israel Religious School and later chief clerk at Marx & Bensdorf Realty for many years. She was a matron worthy of the Order of the Eastern Star and president of the Business and Professional Women’s Club. Beulah Vosse died on August 29, 1972.
